THE RAILROAD VOTE.-It affords us much satis faction to announce the almost unanimous verdict of the stockholders of the Louisville and Frankfort railroad in favor of the subscription of $100,000 to the Lexington and Big Sandy railroad. The election was held yesterday, and almost two-thirds of the stockholders voted for the appropriation. There appears to be almost a perfect degree of unanimity upon this subject. It is essentially necessary that we connect Mt. Sterling, and the rich surrounding section to the north and east of that place, with our The trade thence, which may be directed here, est invaluable.

By this seasonable aid we shall render more assistance than we have ever deemed in our power. We shall soon be enabled to see a railway opened from Laxington to the Virginia line, and thence through onrold mother State to the Atlantic scaboard. There is much wisdom in the vote recorded yesterday. It insures to us a continuous line of railway through Southern territory to the eastern cities-and that, to say the least, is a good desideratum.

LOOK OUT FOR THE IMMIGRATION .- Our Cincinnati exchanges state that there are many Eastern professional thieves now in that city. They are generally young men, and were driven from New York by the Chief of Police of that city showing up some thirty or forty professional rogues in the City Hall. Over fifty are reported in Eastern papers to have left New York at once. In Philadelphia nine of these refugees were detected in felonies of various sorts, and sent to the State Prison. The rogues went on to Baltimore, where their arrival was duly announced in the papers, and they have, it finally made the Doubtless when they are driven off from Cincinnati they will seek to carry on their felonious operations here. We hope our police will keep a sharp lookout for them and introduce them to comfortable quarters at Cave Hill on their arrival.

MR. SUMNER EXPECTS TO BE SHOT .- At the disuzion convention held in Worcester, Mass., Thursda Rev. T. W. Higginson stated that he had a talk with Hon. Chas. Sumner, in Boston last week, and when he asked him if, when he got back to Washington, he would reiterate his words against slavery, Mr. Sumner replied-"Reiterate, reiterate If, when I get back to Washington, I make the speech I expect to make, it will be like fourth-proof brandy to molasses and water." When asked what result he expected from it, he replied: "I expect to shot; there is nothing else left for them to do."

CRIMINAL COURT.-The January term of the Circuit Court concluded yesterday. Nothing whatever was done with the exception of the melancholy sentence of the following persons: Sherman, Polly Grimes, Mary Mack, Mary May, Ann Noyes, Davis, and Sanders, who depart for lodgings at Frankfort on Saturday next.

The two hundred stripes adjudged to the two negroes are to be awarded between the 2d and 10th of Februay-the sheriff not to administer more than fifty lashes at one time.

CITY AFFAIRS .- The sessions of the council and board of aldermen were, as usual, very protracted

A committee, consisting of Messrs. Baird, Monsarrat, and Monroe, was appointed to investigate the policy of constructing a branch railroad to the Gayson coal fields.

At a joint session, Wm. H. Watts was elected assistant assessor for the eastern district and Mr. Mulliken for the western. Joseph Jeans was re-elected license inspector.

A man named Applegate has been arrested near this city by Officer Akers, of New Albany, charged with robbing the house of Mr. Akers in the latter name place.

Major William McClanahan, of Richmond, Ky., has accepted the appointment as cashier of the branch of the Northern Bank at Barboursville.

[For the Louisville Journal.] LINES ON THE DEATH OF MRS. M. C. M. Inscribed to Her Bereaved Husband. BY A FRIEND.

> How soon the beautiful of earth Fade on our eight, then pass away, Commencing from the hour of birth A sure decay.

A smile, a heart-tbrob, and a sigh, And dust returns to kindred dust, And earth guards well from mortal eye

"And Mary-she the cherished one Whose life a blessed influence shed On all who knew her—in the ground Lies cold and dead.

The past! the past! my heart is stilled, When looking back on hy-gone hours, For memory's hallowed urn is filled Wilb withered flowers.

Gone_is the ever mournful sound Which starts the tears we would control, Broken, the "silver cord" which bound Her weary soul.

Gone-with a pure and trusting beart To spend its wealth of love in Heaven; Yes, gone to claim a better part With the forgiven.

Gone-as the gentle dove retires When weary to ber shelt'ring nest, So she, made free from earth's desires, Sank to her rest.

Gone-but the music of her voice In sweetest echo lingers still; Yes, gone, with angels to rejoice On "Zion's Hill."

THE SOUTHERN PACIFIC RAILROAD.—The Harrison (Texas) Flag says that there are 500 or 600 laborers employed upon the two first divisions of this road, and the Vicksburg papers assert that their road to the Texas line, to connect with the Southern Pacific, will be ready for use during the present year, so that the friends of the Pacific road may be able to eat their next Christmas turkey at Marshall in Texas, or at Tyler, thirty miles beyond Marshall, and travel thither on a railroad all the way from the Mississippi river. "The work goes bravely on.'

THE CONCERT.—We were sorry to see so slim an attendance at Signorita Bertini's concert last night. She has a clear and sweet voice, and some of her vocal performances are indeed wonderful. We understand that some of the friends and admirers of Signorita B. have it in contemplation to give her a complimentary henefit, and we hope that their efforts in her behalf may be successful. An appeal for an artiste never has failed to enlist the gentlemen as well as the ladies in our city.

We received no mails from the East, North, or New Orleans yesterday or last night. The Cincinnati train arrived about 5 o'clock as Jeffersonville. Some of the passengers came to the city by walking over on the ice. No wagons ventured across after dark, and the Eastern mail could not be brought here

THE COLDEST DAY .- So the thermometer pronounced yesterday-so accorded the biting, rasping, fiendish attack upon our flesh. Old Boreas reveled in the discomfit and misery that he has brought us, and rang his bells and swelled his shouts in the spirit of true jollity.

The mania in this city for stock in the Southern Pacific Railroad Company has not abated. There yet exists a great demand and one of the holders has advanced to a large premium upon his stocks, there being no other shares that are offered for sale.

We regret to learn that Capt. J. W. Anderson of the Nicaraguan army, and from whom several excellent letters have appeared in our columns, is dangerously ill at New Orleans, where he had just arrived from Nicaragua.

Garfielde, editor of the Paris Flag, has retired from that concern to accept the office of Land Register in Washington Territory. He is succeeded by Capt. W. E. Simms as editor and J. G. Craddock as agent and superintendent.

thusiastic terms the arrival of one hundred head of the river has been entirely closed here. A gentlesuperb cattle, the property of Jacob Belt, of Scott man who has lived here for forty years says he county, Ky. One of them, a real Durham, weighed twenty-eight hundred and seventy-five pounds.

The telegraph informs us that the U. S. Senate passed yesterday the bill making an appropriation for the Trans-ytlantic Telegraph.

PRINCE JOHN AND HIS PROPERTY .- John Van Buren said, it will be remembered, in his New York speech that he had a family to attend to and could not go to Kansas. It will be seen by the following item, which we clip from the N. O. Delta, that his prospective "family" has decreased considerably:

We learn from the Abbeville (S. C.) Independent Press, that the negroes on the estate of the Hon. Geo. McDuffle, numbering about 210, bave been sold to a wealthy Wessern planter for $140,000, being an average of near $700 each. It is stipulated in the sale that they should not be separated. It is sald the heiress of this estate is shortly to be led to the alter of hymen by Jon Van Buren. THE OLD WOOD FIRE .- Many of our citizens who have not toasted their shins by the crackling blaze of a wood fire since early boyhood, will recognize the following description by "Peter Parley" and wish from the bottom of their hearts for such comforts in this season of intense cold and scarce fuel:

The fuel was supplied from the wood lot—sweet-scented blekory, snapping chestunt, odoriferous oak, and "recking fizzling ash." It was a goodly sight to see these stalwart products of the forest laid in large piles, all allive with sap, on the tall, gaunt andirons. You might bave thought you heard John Rogers and his family at the stake, by their plaintiff simmerings. The building of a fire was a real architectural achievement favored by the wide yawning firelace, and was always begun by day-break. There was first a back-log, from fitteen to lour-and-twenty inches in diameter and rive feet long, embedded in the ashes; then came a top-log; then a fore-stick, and then a heap of kindings, reaching from the bowels down to the bottom. A-top of all was a pyramid of sinalier fragments, artfully adjusted, with spaces for the blaze. Friction matches had not then been sent from the regions of brimstone, to enable any boy or beggar to carry a conflagration in his pocket.

THE RIVER.—Interruption of Ferry communecation to Jeffersonville and New Albany .- River Gorged .-Giving way of Ice-Damage and Dangerons Position of Boats, &c .- The very cold weather has put an effectual stop to the running of the ferry-boats. The Jeffersonville boat, after trying all day to come across, succeeded, got within a few hundred feet of the wharf, and then returned to the other side. Mr. Avery measured the thickness of the ice in the river just below the tow-head, and found it from 6 to 8 inches thick. Teams were crossing on it last evening with safety.

The New Albany ferry-boat did not run at all esterday, and persons were crossing the river on the ice.

The river gorged yesterday morning below New Albany, and this caused a rise of several feet at Portland, and floated off a large quantity of ice which had accumulated above. This ice came down with great force against the boats lying at Portland, and parted their lines.

The Alvin Adams, which was lying in shore her whole length and some distance above the fleet escaped, but all the others were lying close together, with their sterns out in the streams. The boats were lying in the following rotation: Virginia, Southerner, Empire, Fanny Bullitt, R. J. Ward, a new hull, A. L. Shotwell, Peter Tellon, Wm. Dixon, and Antelope. The Virginia, lying at the head of the fleet, parted her lines first, and all the others followed to the Antelope. The latter was forced on the whari lengthwise by the Shotwell, which was forced against ner, and the latter had her guard, stauncheons, and her cabin damaged. The new hull was forced alongside of the Shotwell. The Tellon sustained no damage; she is however hard aground, and there is no possibility of her getting off until the river breaks up. The R. J. Ward, which was lying above the new hull, got aground by having her bow forced on the wharf, and this prevented the boats above her from coming in contact with those below. The Virginia, Southerner, Empire, and Fanny Bullitt were however forced several hundred yards in the river by the ice, and are now lying in that condition semmed in by the gorge, which extends from Shippingsport to New Albany. They will have to remain there until the river broaks up, but are in no immediate danger. The Antelope and Wm. Dixon sustained no injury.

The Virginia, Fanny Bullitt, R. J. Ward, the new hull, A. L. Shotwell, Wm. Dixon, and Antelope are partially laden. The hull of the new boat belonged to St. Louis, and the Ward was to tow it to Cairo, and had put some of her freight on it. Capt. Miller commenced unloading it last evening.

We understand that a meeting of the board of underwriters will be held this morning to consider the propriety of unloading all the boats.

Steamer Highflyer Snnk.—Supposed to be a Total Loss.—Telegraphic dispatches were received by Messrs. Sherly, Bell & Co. last evening, announcing the siuking of this steamer. The Hightlyer had come from New Orleans bound for this port, but finding the river closed above Paducah, took on board about half a load at that place, consisting of cotten and tobacco, and was on her return to New Orleans. She was sunk on the Grand Chain, in the Ohio river, and the dispatch states that it is supposed she will be a total loss. As soon as Capt. Reid, of the Fashion, which boat is laid up at Caire, and belongs to the same company, heard of the disaster, he started with his boat for the Highflyer, but the water at Cash Island was so low that the F. could not get to

The Highflyer was two or three years old, worth about $30,000, and insured for $18,000, divided between the following offices: Merchants' of Philadelphia $2,500, City Insurance of Cincinnati $2,500, Delaware Mutual Safety $3,000, Louisville Insurance Company $2,000, Jefferson Insurance Company, of this city, $2,000, Franklin Insurance Company, of this city, $2,000, and Commercial Insurance Company of Louisville $2,000.

The New Albany Ledger notices the closing of the river at that point, and adds: "This is the first time within the memory of the 'oldest inhabitant' that never saw such a spectacle before as the river in front of the city presented this morning."

The Cumberland river was frozen over at Nashville for the first time in twenty-one years, and persons were crossing it on the ice. The thermometer at Nashville on Monday morning stood 8 degrees below zero.

The weather was colder vesterday than it has been any preceding day this season. The thermometer at 7 o'clock vesterday morning stood 6 degrees below zero, and during the day it did not get higher than 6 degrees above zero; at 6 o'clock last evening it stood at zero, and at half-past 1 o'clock last night it stood at 6 degrees below zero.

The barometer was pretty high last night, but it had only risen one from noon yesterday to 12 o'clock

[From this morning's Journal.] THIRTY-FOURTH CONGRESS-SECOND SESSION. Thursday's Proceedings Concluded.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22. Senate.-The consideration of the Submarine Telegraph bill was resumed.

Mr. Pugh moved to amend by adding a proviso that no money shall be paid under the unthority of this act until a convention shall have been concluded this act until a convention shall have been concluded between the United States and Gritain, whereby such portions of the British Provinces in North America as command the western terminus of the telegraph shall have been subjected to the principle of neutralization, as adopted in the Central American treaty of 1850.

Mr. Seward said the discretion was lodged in the President and, if he deemed the internation of this

Mr. Seward said the discretion was lodged in the President, and, if he deemed the interest of this country required such treaty, he would doubtless take proper measures for that object.

Messrs. Hunter, Thompson, of Ky., Pearce, and Geyer opposed the bill for various reasons.

Mr. Weller was not willing that $70,000 a year should be expended by this telegraph while a similar connection with the Pacific, which was vastly more important, was rejected.

Mr. Butler was not willing to trust the destinies of this country to a wire controlled by Great Britain this country to a wire controlled by Great Britain, and urged other objections to the bill.

Messrs. Rusk, Douglas, Seward, and Mallory

essed its passage.

Mr. Bayard remarked that it was certain that, if practicable, a line will be established, as we can prevent its construction by our refusal to partici-pate in the enterprise. He offered an amendment, which was adopted, providing for such arrangements as may be necessary to secure to each Government the transmission of its own messages by its own

No witness is to be hereafter al-lowed to wilfully refuse to give testimony or produce any papers, and if he do so he shall be liable to indictment for misdemeanor, and on conviction shall pay a fine of not more than $1,000 nor less than $100, and be imprisoned in the penitentiary not more than twelve months nor less than one month, the witness to be protected from criminal prosecution for any testimony he may give before a Congressional committee, but not relieved from prosecution for perjury.

Mr. Davis called on the House to relieve the committee from the difficulties which stand at the thresh-

Mr. Wilson wished to substitute imprisonment in jail instead of penitentiary, as the latter was used only for felonious offences, and to this the select committee agreed.

BRITISH ARMY IN HINDOSTAN. - Most persons have very erroneous ideas of the distribution of the British troops, and the strength of the Indian army. The following is a return of the British and Indian army, made more than thirty years since in a time of peace. The probability is that it is much stronger

Here is an immense army, of which about one hundred thousand are available in the field. Unite this army with the Affghans, and the perfect control of every foot of the seas, and with the finest part of Persia exposed from the coast, and we confess it is not quite evident how the Russian alliance, if it exist, is to avail Persia. Besides this, England can recruit her army from the natives to any extent, as the able-bodied fighting meu in India number more than twelve millions.

The tariff, in the opinion of the best informed journals, is not likely to be materially altered this session of Cougress. Some of the interests which are to be affected by it will oppose all their influence to any reduction of the amount of protection afforded by the present tariff. A compromise of those interests, as represented in the House, by their friends respectively, is talked of, and may possibly be brought about, if Congress should manifest a determination to reduce the revenue, at this session, to the wants of the Government. Many members, and particularly of the "Republican" party, are quite willing to let the subject lie over till the next Arithmetic for Managers.—There are five Sunday newspapers in the city of New York, with an aggregate circulation of 100,000 copies. They charge $2 each for advertising two squares—making an aggregate of $10 a week. The united notoriety which they can give to any performance would be worth, in the aggregate, at least $1,000. Add this to another $1,000 lost through their united opposition and we have an aggregate loss of $2,000 per week!

A Long Coil.—The condensers of the new Collins steamship Adriatic, invented Mr. Allen of the Novelty Works, New York, cool the steam by means of 21 miles of brass tubing, through which cold sea water is made to pass constantly by two pumps. The condensed steam is thus fed back into the boilfeet long, so that the cooling power of the water passed through them must be nearly the same as if it were mixed with the steam in jets.

FACTS ABOUT THE KORAN.—The Koran was written about A. D. 610. Its general aim was to unite the professors of idolatry and the Jews and Christians in the worship of one God—whose unity was the chief point inculcated—under certain laws and ceremonies, exacting obedience to Mahomet as the prophet. It was written in the Koreish Arabic, and this language, which certainly possessed every fine quality, was said to be that of paradise. Mahomet asserted that the Koran was revealed to him, during a period of twenty-three years, by the Angel during a period of twenty-three years, by the Angel

The style of the volume is beantiful, fluent, The style of the volume is beantiful, fluent, and concise; and, where the majesty and attributes of God are described, it is sublime and magnificent. Mahomet admitted the divine mission both of Moses and Jesus Christ. According to Gibbon, the leading article of faith which Mahomet preached is compounded of an eternal truth and a necessary fiction, naucly, that there is only one God, and that Mahomet is the apostle of God. The Koran was translated into Latin in 1143, and into English and other lated into Latin in 1143, and into English and other European languages about 1763. It is a rhapedy of 3,000 verses, divided into 114 sections.

A correspondent has sent us the following ommunication, and article from the New York Observer upon the condition and treatment of the inmates of New York poor-houses and prisons. We are satisfied that nothing of the kind will be found anywhere in Kentucky. In the jail in this city, t'ie cleanliness and comfort of the prisoners is scrupulously and kindly attended to. We believe that the management of both our alms-house and workhouse is unobjectionable. These institutions in this and other Southern States are not only under the supervision of the municipal and State authorities but are subjected to the inquisition of grand juries:

(For the Louisville Bulletin.) MESSES. EDITORS: I cut the following astounding article from the last New York Observer. Can it be possible that such atroctics are practiced in a Christian land? This report seems to be authentic. How is It with our poorhouses? Will some of your readers who have thoroughly examined them please teil us how well they are managed? I fong to be assured that they are just what they ought to be in every respect; to certainly the curse of God must fail upon the State or city in which exket such abominations as have been found in New York. "The poor we have always with us," and we are bound, not only by religion but by every principle of humaulty, to see that they are comfortably previded for.

sion but by every principle of humanity, to see that they are comfortably previded for.

Foor-House Decelorments.—We are astounded and mortified at the disclosures made by the report of the Senate Committee on the condition of the Foor-Houses in the State of New York. We have not a copy of the document in hand, but we learn from the Albany Journal that the condition of some of the county poor-houses, as described therein, is almost incredible. They are badly built, worse arranged, not half warmed, and not at all ventilated.

The unfortunate tenants of tiesee places, when they are not starved, and fed upon tainted meat, spolled fish, and decaying vegetables, are lodged either in open sheds, where they freeze, or in close hovels, where they suffocate. They sleep plade in tiers. They sicken without attention, die without medicine, and are tossed into graves like brutes.

In one "institution" not less than one-fourth of its 137 lumates died (say rather were killed) in less than a single year. They are literally the ahodes of Pestilence and Famine. While the same fare thus badly the Insane fare worse. Blows and claims are the only prescriptions for mental disease. The lumaic is beaten because of his wardering mind, and the idlet pounded for his lack of sense. Some wretched ones life upon straw, amid the accumulated filth of months, with no covering but such of this foul bed as adheres to their bodies. The blind, the deaf, the crippled, huddled together, are treated with equal inlumanity—as if they were doomed to suffer by the neglect of man as well as by the visitation of God.

The Supervisors, who should see and correct these shuses, sometimes do not visit the place once a year, sometimeer not during their term of office. Not unfrequently counts stors are permitted to grind a profit out of the labor of the miserable wretches and their wiskedness. It would be unjust to include all jails and poor houses in this centure. Some are even most of their ways and their wiskedness. It would be unjust to include all ja and supplying, so far as kindness can, "eyes to the blind, ear to the deaf, and feet to the lame."

From these statements it appears that institutions under the control of private individuals are hetter managed than those whose others are appointed by the State. The whole subject of our charitable societies and public asylims demands close and rigid investigation, that power may not be abased, the poor made more wretched by the rapacity and cruelty of their guardians, and that humanity may not be thwarted in its labors and prayers. We trust the Legislature will ejseedly deliver the State from the monstrous disgrace which the revelations of this report must theap upon her fair name.

New York ought to be the model State, Her intellisence, wealth, enterprise, and reputation ought not to make her more despicable, as they must if she suffers such abuses as these to remain uncorrected a single year. Give us the names of the counties where these abuses abound. Give us the names of the keepers of the poor-houses where these deeds of shame are perpetrated, and we will publish them as the meanest men that live, men who will defraud the poor.

the corporations with the statistics of the Lowell corpora-tions.

The Merrimack Man'g Co. was first incorporated, which was in 1822. There are now 12 corporations, with a total capital stock of $13,900,000. There are 52 mills, 392,324 spindles, and 11,773 looms. Eight thousand eight hundred and twenty females and 4,367 males are employed. Two million two hundred and forty-six yards of cotton, 30,000 yards of woolen, 25,000 yards of carpet, and 50 rugs are manufactured per week.

Twenty-eight thousand three hundred and fifty tons of hard coal, 31,300 bushels of charcoal, 200 cords of wood, 69,717 gailons of sperm and 20,000 gailons of lard oil, 1,-409,100 pounds of starch, and 1,545 barrels of flour are need in the mills in one year. Six hundred and nincty thou-sand pounds of cotton are used each week. The wheels and pounds of cotton are used each week. The whoels used are the breast, turbine, and a wheel improved by Mr. Francis. The average wages of fennies, clear of board, per week, $2. Average wages of males, clear of board, per week, $2. Average wages of males, clear of board, per week, $2. Average wages of males, clear of board, per population of Lowell in 1823 was 3,522. In 1855 the population was 37,553. The boarding-houses helong to the corporations, and are under the charge of discreet matrons. Several permanent from ladders, leading from the roof to the hasement of the factory building and communicating with the windows of each story by platforms with from railings afford means of excaping in the event of fire. The whole Merrimac river is made tributary to the different corporations.

THE SLAVE TRADE FLOURISHING .- According to Mr. J. S. Thrasher, from 1821 to 1854 nearly 300, 000 negroes were brought to the island of Cuba. In 1817 the relative proportion of the whites to the blacks in the island was as 29 to 33; and in 1851 it was as 28 to 44.

was as 28 to 44.

The London Times also contains some interesting statistics in relation to the African slave trade. From 1845 to 1856 there were imported successively, year by year, into Brazil from Africa the following batches of slaves: 17,435, 19,095, 22,849, 19,453, 50,324, 56,172, 60,000, 54,000, and 28,000.

We learn, says the Philadelphia Inquirer, from these and other figures, that from 1842 to 1845 the slave traffic though apparently declining was at slave traffic, though apparently declining, was at any rate stationary, whereas, in 1846 it received an extraordinary impulse which for four successive years nearly trebled its result. It is unnecessary to years nearly trebled its result. It is unnecessary to add that this increase coincided with those legislative acts which opened the British markets to Brazilian sugars. In 1850, however, though the sugar trade retained all its freedom, the importation of slaves fell to 23,000—scarcely one-half its recent amount—and in the next year the returns were more remarkable still. remarkable still.

Theological Conference Between Protestants and Catholics.—A conference was held on the 2d of Sep-Catholics.—A conference was held on the 2d of September last between four priests and four Protestant ministers, at Divonne, for discussing the principles of Protestantism and Romanism. There were about twenty witnesses present. The representatives of Protestantism were Bungener (the celebrated author of the "Council of Trent" and other well-known theological works), and Jacquet, minister of the national church at Geneva; Guers, of the free church of Geneva; and Bois, of Valence, in France. One of the priests was Mermillod, the editor of the "Annales Catholiques de Genere" and the author of several polemical works against Protestantism. Official minutes could not be published because the parties could not agree on them. But Rev. Mr. Bungener has published the Protestant and one of the priests the Catholic report on the conference. It is worth noticing that a conference of this kind It is worth noticing that a conference of this kind has been repeatedly offered by Protestant ministers in England to Dr. Cahill, the oracle of the Irish Catholics, and, in our country, to Orestes Brownson, but has always been declined.

A biography of Robespierre in an Irish paper concludes thus: "This extraordinary man left no hildren behind him except a brother, who was killed at the same time."

COLD WEATHER AND FROST BITES, - Tens of housands of persons suffer ananally with frosted limbs, when they could easily be cured by using Porter's Oriental Life Liniment.

Eight hundred bottles of this Liniment were old at the principal depot in this city on Monday, the 5th of January, nearly every bottle of which was bought especially for the cure of frost-bites. This great demand for the Oriental Life Liniment is in consequence of the universal success which has attended its use in the cure of frost-bites. It is a well-known fact that hundreds of old cases, of from ten to fifteen years' standing, have been permunently cured by the use of this valuable remedy.

The museum, where all persons of morbid tastes are wont to congregate in order to view specimens of depraved human nature, had but a single object for inspection. That was Alex. THE DEATH OF A PROMINENT CITIZENS .- Information was received this morning, by telegraph, of the death of Capt. 1. S. Moorhead of this city. He died in Baltimore this morning. Capt. Moorhead was one of our most respected and useful citizens. He was an euergetic and successful merchant, and few men have enjoyed such universal good esteem as that in which he was held by all who knew him. He was always among the foremost in every effort to promote public interest or to relieve private distress. In his death the community has sustained a severe loss, and his bereaved family will have the sympathy of all in their heavy affliction.

> The news from Washington, is, that Arizona, the Gadsden purchase, as a Territory is not to exist. The House Committee, however, agree that the Territory needs some legislation, and they propose a Federal Judge:

> It is to be presumed (says the committee) that the eastern portion of New Mexico will be prepared, at no distant day, lor admission into the Union as a State. When the Territory is divided for that purpose, as it unquestionably will be, then would seem to be the proper time for the establishment of a new Territorial Government.

HOW IS IT

EVERYBODY wants once of TROX EL'S beautiful AMBROTYPES? Seine months ago the different burnlug names gotten up by artists to deceive the public attracted considerable attention, but now they have ascertained how easily it is to be humbingged even by a name, as all other pictures made on glass in Louisville except at Troxel's (failery are not hermetically scaled, not so beautiful, and lishle to fade.
Citizens and strangers are particularly invited to call before going claewhere. PUBLIC AMUSEMENTS .- We believe that there exists in our city intelligence and refinement to an extcut equal to that of any other city in our Union, and we have been utterly astonished at the degeneracy of taste in regard to public amusements. The ridiculous scems to have triumphed over the sublime, the coarse jests of a circus clown are valued more than the cloquent sentiments of the most gifted We have removed our FINISHING and PIANO WARE-ROOMS to the corner of Main and Sixth streets, Reynolds's new block. authors, ran's and fustian are preferred to truly artistic re'adering, "Bobbin Around" and "Our Mary Ann'' elicit more applause than the choicest musi-FF Entrance on Main street, also on Sixth, in rear of cal gems, and the display of a fine pair of legs appears to be a surer passport to public favor than the PETERS, CRAGG, & CO.

PETERS, CRAGG, & CO.

PIANO-FORTE MANUFACTURERS.

Ilaving increased our facilities, we are now enabled to turn out from ten to twelve l'isnae per week. We would respectfuily inform our wholesale and retail purchasers that we hope for the future to be able to supply the increased demand for our instruments.

As regards the inerits of our Pianos we would respectfully refer to the fact, for the last five years, we have have resulted for the provider of th most splendid genius and well cultivated talent.

It is true that we live in an age of humbug, but we have a better opinion of our population than to believe that they have no taste, no discrimination, and no appreciation of the beautiful and excellent. A reform is needed either in the public taste itself or in the mode of manifesting it. The experiences of the present season will mark Louisville as a city pets, paraded for weeks in staring capitals and introduced by cars of music drawn through all our streets with prancing horses decorated with flags and ribbons and rosettes.

Rhymes and Roundelays in praise of a Country Life, Illustrated. We have frequently heard complaints that distinguished actors and actresses and singers and artists of every description do not favor Louisville with a visit, yet the reason is apparent—they are not supported here, and they are unwilling to subject themselves to the mortification of appearing before "a beggarly account of empty boxes," while a circus clown, a comic singer, a troupe of negro minstrels, or Donetti's monkeys will draw houses crowded almost to suffocation.

We are sure that our citizens are doing themselves great injustice in this want of independence and neglect of real merit. We are satisfied that they can, if they will, appreciate true mcrit and distinguish the false from the real, and we hope that a radical change in the manifestation of public taste will be promptly effected.

An opportunity will be presented to-night for a display of our appreciation and willingness to encourage real merit and superior attainments. The lady who is playing an engagement at our theatre not only has peculiar claims upon the people of Louisville as a native of the city, but she possesses rare natural endowments, improved by the highest degree of artistic cultivation. All who have seen her have been more than delighted with the exquisite gracefullness and sparkling sprightliness of her manner, with the classic beauty of her form and features and the elegance of her rendering of the characters in which she has appeared. We hope that the opportunity will be improved to show that the taste of our population for public amusements is not altogether depraved, and to prove that the rare attainments, which have enlisted the most fervid enthusiasm elsewhere, can be appreciated and will be liberally patronized by our citizeus.

EXTRAORDINARY ROMANCE.—During the investigation of the criminal charges at the Birmingham police on Friday, a young man was lying sleeping upon one of the benches in a corner. His appear-auce exhibited great want, and his boots and trowsers up to his knees were covered with dry mud. He was of very handsome appearance, though the sunken cheeks and prominent eyes betokened a long fasting. He were a slight moustache and beard of a fair color, and his clothes were of the best texture and make. At the close of the public business, he stepped forward and sought relief of the presiding magistrate. His tale was a romance. He said he was an American by birth, but had left that country more than five years ago to travel in various countries—among others Africa, Turkey, France,

He desired to get to Liverpool, where he knew the American consul and several captains of the Collins line of steamers, and he could rely upon the aid of those gentlemen to transport him to his home. He also said he was a gentleman by birth and education, and that he was the American Vice-consul at Marseilles for ten months. In reply to various at Marseilles for ten months. In reply to various questions, he stated that he had been robbed of 200l in a cafe in Paris, where he had been staying. He left London without sufficient means to pay his fare to Liverpool, and intended to foot it; but found that the little money he had was goue too quick.

The magistrate then ordered a constable to show the man to the parish officers and ask them to re-lieve him if they could. The papers in his possession bore many foreign postmarks, and some of of the present season will mark Louisville as a city to be carefully shunned hereafter by every artist of real merit as a place where the most extraordinary genius and surpassing talents are completely neglected unless heralded by a loud braying of trumpter paraded for weeks in staring capitals and in the present season will mark Louisville as a city them were addressed, in fine writing, to "E. At the parish offices he got no relief, the law not allowing the distribution of mouey for the purpose for which the American sought it, namely, to forward him on to Liverpool. The relieving officer on duty offered him a note for the workhouse; but that he refused, expressing his determination "to die on the road first," and so left the offices.

A "CRUEL INDISCRETION" IN CANADA.—The Toronto Weekly Message says that the Rev. T. Creen, rector of St. Marks, in Niagara, C. W., was some weeks since suspended for life, for adultery with one of his parishioners. The sentence of his bishop, Strachan of Toronto, was that he should be so suspended but should keep his title of rector till Language. pended, but should keep his title of rector till January following and theu retire from the episcopacy on a life peusion of $109 a year! Aniongst the testiunory against him was the following note enclosed in a copy of Milton's Prose Works:

"My Dear Mes. Low: I subscribe with a good conscience to the doctrine of the great Milton, set forth in his prose works from page 224 to 252, and request a careful permal of those pages, because I wish to contract an union on these principles, as my wife is good for unthing for that purpose, and I have always admired and regarded you with nacommon affection and partiality.

If you can return the feelings which I entertain, please to signify the same by subscribing the faitial of your name under unine, and return the book to me to-morrow with this enclosed.

"NIAGARA, May 8, 1855.

The Rector's assistant, the Rev. Mr. Reynolds.

The Rector's assistant, the Rev. Mr. Reynolds refused to be present at Mr. Creen's service of the communion, and gave as a reason for it the adulterous and drunken life of the Rector. The scandal thus became public. Bishop Strachan had to take notice of it—a trial was ordered—Creen was ungowned yet pensioned, while poor keynolds was adjudged guilty of a "cruel indiscretion" as the Bishop phrases it, and has been indefinitely suspended from clerical duty!

RELIEF FOR OUR NECESSITIES.—The citizens of Pittsburg, gratefully remembering the contributions made for their relief-amounting to $12,000-by the cities of Louisville and Cincinnati after the fire of 1845, propose to give of their abundance for the assistance of our suffering poor. The Pittsburg Di-

We cannot doubt that the sentiments of the article la-low will meet with an immediate and hearty response from the citizens of Pittsburgh and Allegberry. Coal is about dath here, while at Cincinnail and Louisville (which, see will be seen, contributed jointly a large sum in aid of the suf-ferers by the Pittsburg fire of 1845) he poor are authorized for want of fuel in the bitter cold of mid-winter.

A correspondent of the same paper says:

A correspondent of the same paper says:

I am much mistaken in the character of our coal way chante if they would not deliver it at the Allegheny kind-road depot at cost, or less than cost, as their share of the contribution; and is it too much to say that the mema-road on the same terms?

Were proper efforts made, I have no doubt we could said enough to make slad the bearts of many a poor family mow suffering for want of that which we have in such great abundance.

Would it not be a good beginning for the newly elected mayors of our two cities to let one of their first acts be the cailing of meetings in Pittishing and Allegheny, for the purpose of devising ways and means to relieve the suffering of our neighbors in the first mentioned cities?

LADIES' FURS AT REDUCED PRICES
HAYES, CRAIG, & CO. are making quite a stir ainong the ladies in consequence of the low price of their Furs. Having en hand much too large a stock for the season, and much of it too fine for this market—at least the ladies think so—(they do not wish to humbug their customers by 'selling at cost')—have reduced their prices very materially, and are now furnishing the ladles with Furs of every description at much lower prices than they were ever before retailed for in the Western country, and intend to do so until after Christmas, which will afford a good opportunity to all those who wish to make Christmas presenta, There certainly is nothing more seasonable for such purposes; and gentiemen inclined that way will find our Furs so low that they are within the reach of all.
